12. [ ] - GLC) Met with Jim Kendall, Chief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Preparedness Investigation, and offered him the latest [ ] Final Data Summary (U) for Alerts in 1970 (Alerts 446-475) dated 20 April 1971. Kendall said that since the departure of Colonel Glen Smith and Colonel Everett Harper from the staff he no longer had a need for these sheets and said we could discontinue our procedure of providing the Subcommittee with copies.

I reviewed with Kendall some of the most recent current intelligence items such as the detection of new ICBM silos in the Soviet Union and Soviet shipment of MIG 21s to Egypt. Kendall is being briefed fairly regularly by DIA on most of these topics, but he appreciated my going over the situation with him.

I mentioned to Kendall the request we had from GAO for the production of data on Soviet expenditures in the military research and development field in conjunction with a study they are doing for Senator McIntyre's R&D Subcommittee. Kendall expressed concern about providing this material through GAO and gave me some of the background on the departure of Ross Hamachek who worked for Senator McIntyre at one time and is now working for Senator Proxmire.

7. [ ] JGO) Met with Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, and briefed him on the meetings of 21 and 22 April with Mr. Hebert and members of the House Armed Services Committee concerning intelligence monies in the Defense authorization bill. Mr. Preston commented that the tenor of the meetings in his opinion reflect the growing mood of the House of Representatives. We may well see drastic cuts this year in Defense Department support for free world forces.

8. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Talked to Mr. George C. Denney, INR, and Mr. John Leahy, Legislative Liaison, Department of State, about the Ervin Bill. Mr. Leahy plans to meet with Employee Benefits Subcommittee staff people the first of the week. The State Department representative who will testify before the Subcommittee on 27 May will probably be Mr. Howard Mace, Deputy Director of Personnel. Mr. Leahy will keep us advised.
